

What do ethics seek to promote in human life? Why is it all the more important in Public Administration?

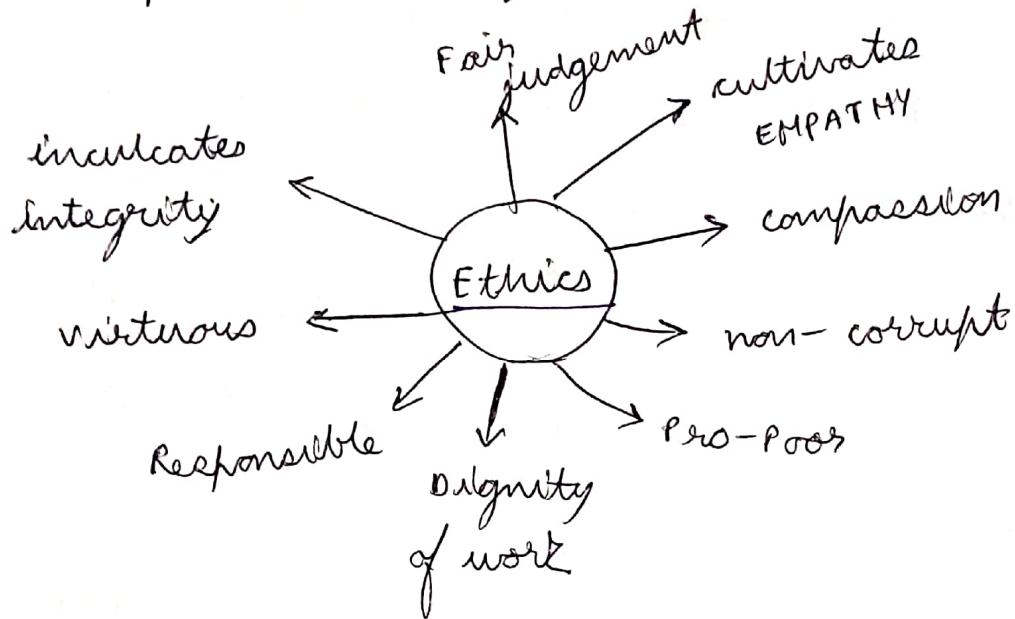

Ethics are moral values on whose foundation society sustains. Ethics are important as Ethics is more important in Public Administration as the nature of office is ensuring public good. Ethics guides the administration in ensuring greater good for greater number of people. Ethics also inculcates qualities which help administrators provide service in a compassionate way.

(2)

without ethics in administration and himself, the bureaucrat would be a detached machine just following rules. so ethics is important in public administration, it is like the perfume which beholds a beautiful flower without which it lacks completeness.